Spring 2012 Outstanding Graduate

Saeed Ahmari

Civil Engineering and Engineering Mechanics

"Saeed has been a teaching assistant teaching our Soil lab for the past two years. He has worked on several interdisciplinary research projects including underground compressed air energy storage and environmentally friendly recycling and reuse of different types of wastes as construction materials. Published three journal papers and two conference papers, and has three journal papers currently under review.

Awards received are: NFS and UofA Travel Awards."

Nominated By: Lianyang Zhang
Assistant Professor