Admission Appeal

In order to complete your appeal and have it sent to the Appeals Committee for review, you must upload the following materials:

- A letter (no more than two pages) addressed to the Appeals Committee stating your request for an appeal/reconsideration, why you believe you are academically qualified to attend the University of Arizona, and any extenuating circumstances that may have not been evident in your initial application.
- Two letters of recommendation from instructors* that you currently have, or have previously been taught by, specifically addressing:
  - Your academic ability
  - Why they support your appeal to the University of Arizona
- Official updated grade coursework information, and additional test scores if you've taken the SAT or ACT since you initially applied.
- (Optional) Any miscellaneous documents that you feel may assist in your appeal, such as awards or documentation of a medical event.

*You may upload additional letters of recommendation from non-academic references, but two of the recommendations must come from academic sources.

You must upload all of the materials before the thirty (30) day deadline. The thirty days starts the day you were sent your initial appeals email.
Recommendations:
For your two academic references, use the link below to send your references a request for your letter of recommendation. The recommender will be able to upload their letter directly, and you will be able to see when it has been received on your status page.

Uploading Documents:
Under the Forms section, click the link for Appeal Document Uploads. This will take you to a new page, where you may upload your materials. Under Personal Statement, you can select the box that says "Choose File" and select your document.

The uploading form has sections for your personal statement, unofficial transcripts, or any additional documents you wish to upload for your appeal. Click on "Choose File" and upload the appropriate document under each section.

The uploading form will only allow you to upload one file at a time within a specific section. To upload multiple Additional Documents, you can submit the form and then go back into the form by selecting the Edit link.

After you have uploaded all of your appeals documents, make sure to select the box confirming "Yes, I have uploaded all the documents that I want to include in my Appeals Packet" under the Confirm Documents Uploaded section, and then submit the form.

Your appeals application will not be reviewed until you select this box and submit the form.

If you have any questions about uploading your materials or any concerns, please email: appeals@email.arizona.edu or call the Office of Undergraduate Admissions at (520) 621-3237.
